

Epic

learning designers needed

Epic has been designing award-winning bespoke learning solutions for over 20 years. Our increasing workload means we urgently need Learning Designers to work at our Brighton Head Office.

Learning Designers partner clients and our internal teams to agree a learning approach/ instructional model for bespoke e-learning and blended solutions. They also oversee the scriptwriting of solutions and work with Epic's Art Directors to agree a look and feel. They work across a wide range of subject areas within both the private and public sectors.

we need people with:

- Proven business writing skills, ideally in an e-learning/web/training environment
- A flexible writing style
- Sound grammar
- A knowledge of learning theory and learning design best practice
- Creativity and innovation
- Experience in client facing situations
- Questioning and listening skills, in order to develop a project brief, identify the training need and design appropriate solutions
- Ability to structure content and re-purpose it as effective e-learning
- Proven ability to work as part of a team like to join us?

If you have the above skills and want to work in a fast-paced, creative environment then please send us your CV.
